Narrowing Volume of Trade Continues --- Shorts in Reading and Steel Cover Freely

MARKET VERY STRONG, BUT QUIET, WITH READING AND STEEL SETTING THE PACE.

NEW YORK, Feb. 16.—Once again the trend of the market was toward a lessened volume of business, save in spots, with a shade firmer tone following an easier opening, induced by a slowing up in London. Those who had the courties the courties of leaves found. age to buy stocks at lower levels found the profits rather attractive and were profits attractive attractive and were profits attractive attractive and were profits attractive attractive and were profits attractive and were profits attractive attractive and were profits attractive attractive and were profits attractive side. A good trading market is about the best expected in the near future.

belated shorts were doing their best to get out thereby aiding the advance. There was also good buying of Southern Pacific, but it did not display the firm front shown in Reading or other strons stocks actually going off a fraction.

The best strength of the day was in the Southwestern group, Gould and Hawley shares. Katy moved up a full point, Missouri Pacific %, and Chesapeake & Ohio a fraction.

Morgan Goes Abroad.

J. P. Morgan salled this morning for England. Traders showed a disposition to sell Steel common rather more freely, holding that conditions in the tradely.

Cheap for Cash

You are probably hoping to own your home some time. Do you know that you can often get a big bargain in a house if you are able to pay spot cash for it? Better let your money accumulate in a savings account where it will be earning interest rather than buy on the installment plan and pay out interest.
